Whenever any notice is required to be given to any Trustee under the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws or any provision of law, a waiver in writing, signed at any time, whether before or after the time of meeting, by the Trustee entitled to the notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice. The attendance of the Trustee at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where a Trustee attends the meeting and objects to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any meeting of the Board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

The President shall have the authority to create and/or appoint other positions or committees and task forces as he or she believes are necessary for the efficient and effective operation of the Foundation. The President shall have authority, subject to any rules prescribed by the Board, to appoint agents of the Foundation as he or she shall deem necessary, to prescribe their powers and duties, and to delegate authority to them. The President shall have authority to sign, execute and acknowledge, on behalf of the Foundation, all contracts, leases, reports and all other documents or instruments necessary or proper to be executed in the course of the Foundation's regular business, or which shall be authorized by resolution of the Board; and, except as otherwise provided by law or the Board, the President may authorize such Officers or agents of the Foundation to sign, execute and acknowledge those documents or instruments in his or her place and stead. The President shall be the custodian of all records of the Foundation and perform all duties typically incident to the office of Secretary. The President shall perform such other duties and exercise such authority not inconsistent with these Bylaws that are incident to the office of President and as from time to time may be assigned to him or her by the Board.

ARTICLE VIII

LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION OF TRUSTEES, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS; INSURANCE

SECTION 1. Liability of Trustees and Officers. No Trustee or Officer shall be liable to the Foundation, its creditors, or any person asserting rights on behalf of the Foundation, for damages, settlements, fees, fines, penalties, or other monetary liabilities arising from a breach of, or a failure to perform, any duty resulting solely from his or her status as a Trustee or Officer of the Foundation (or from his or her status as a director, officer, partner, trustee, member of any governing or decision-making committee, employee or agent of another corporation or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service to an employee benefit plan, which capacity the Trustee or Officer is or was serving in at the Foundation's request while a Trustee or Officer of the Foundation) to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits the Foundation to further limit or eliminate the liability of a Trustee or Officer than the law permitted the Foundation to provide prior to that amendment); provided, however, that this limitation on liability shall not apply where the breach or failure to perform constitutes (a) a willful failure to deal fairly with the Foundation in connection with a matter in which the Trustee or Officer has a material conflict of interest; (b) a violation of criminal law, unless the Trustee or Officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (c) a transaction from which the Trustee or Officer derived an improper personal benefit; or (d) willful misconduct.

SECTION 2. Indemnification of Trustees, Officers, Employees and Agents.

(a) Right of Trustees and Officers to Indemnification. Any person shall be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law, as the same may exist or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits the Foundation to provide broader indemnification rights than the law permitted the Foundation to provide prior to such amendment), from and against all reasonable expenses (including fees, costs, charges, disbursements, attorney fees and any other expenses) and liability (including the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, assessment, forfeiture or fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) asserted against, incurred by or imposed on him or her in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative ("proceeding") to which he or she is made or threatened to be made a party by reason of his or her being or having been a Trustee or Officer of the Foundation (or by reason of, while serving as a Trustee or Officer of the Foundation, having served at the Foundation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, member of any governing or decision-making committee, employee or agent of another corporation or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service to an employee benefit plan); provided, however, in situations other than a successful defense of a proceeding, the Trustee or Officer shall not be indemnified where he or she breached or failed to perform a duty to the Foundation and the breach or failure to perform constitutes (a) a willful failure to deal fairly with the Foundation in connection with a matter in which the Trustee or Officer has a material conflict of interest; (b) a violation of criminal law, unless the Trustee or Officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (c) a transaction from which the Trustee or Officer derived an improper personal benefit; or (d) willful misconduct. These rights to indemnification shall include the right to be paid by the Foundation reasonable expenses as incurred in defending such proceeding provided, however, that payment of such expenses as incurred shall be made only upon such person delivering to the Foundation (a) a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has not breached or failed to perform his or her duties to the Foundation, and (b) a written undertaking, executed personally or on his or her behalf, to repay the allowance to the extent it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification under this provision. The Foundation may require that the undertaking be secured and may require payment of reasonable interest on the allowance to the extent that it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification.

(b) Right of Trustee or Officer to Bring Suit. If a claim under subsection (a) is not paid in full by the Foundation within 30 days after a written claim has been received by the Foundation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Foundation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, if successful in whole or in part, the claimant shall be entitled to be paid also the reasonable expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking has been tendered to the Foundation) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct under this section which make it permissible for the Foundation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Foundation.

(c) Right of Employees and Agents to Indemnification. The Foundation by its Board of Trustees may on such terms as the Board deems advisable indemnify and allow reasonable expenses of any employee or agent of the Foundation with respect to any action taken or failed to be taken in his or her capacity as such employee or agent.

SECTION 3. Contract Rights, Amendment or Repeal. All rights under this Article shall be deemed a contract between the Foundation and the Trustee or Officer pursuant to which the Foundation and the Trustee or Officer intend to be legally bound. Any repeal, amendment or modification of this Article shall be prospective only as to conduct of a Trustee or Officer occurring thereafter, and shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing.

SECTION 4. Scope of Article. The rights granted by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a Trustee, Officer, employee or agent may be entitled under any statute, agreement, vote of disinterested Trustees or otherwise. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or granted pursuant to this Article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Trustee or Officer in respect to matters arising prior to such time, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators and personal representatives of such a person.

SECTION 5. Insurance. The Foundation shall purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any person who is a Trustee, Officer, employee or agent of the Foundation or is or was serving at the request of the Foundation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, member of any governing or decision-making committee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service to an employee benefit plan, against any liability asserted against that person or incurred by that person in any such capacity, or arising out of that person's status as such, whether or not the Foundation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under this Article.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS AND OTHER PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. Amendment of Bylaws. These Bylaws or any of them may be altered, amended, added to, or repealed by the Board at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, provided, however, that ARTICLE III, Section 13, may not be amended, altered or repealed except by the affirmative approval of 75% of the Trustees in office at the time the approval is adopted.

SECTION 2. Construction of Words. Unless the context of these Bylaws plainly requires otherwise, the plural of any term defined in these Bylaws shall mean two or more thereof.
